My Experiences at a JS Bootcamp

James Hunt
@thetwopct
locationindependent.co.uk

1) Why I felt I needed it
2) What it was all about
3) What I learnt
4) Was it worth it
5) Would I recommend it

1995 - HTML
2001 - PHP
2008 - WordPress
2015 - Enterprise-focused WordPress
...

I’ve completely ignored JavaScript

- Never had the time

- Kept putting it off

- Always putting clients first

TORTUGA
CODERS

- Full stack web development course

- 9 weeks, 5 days a week

- Classes, tutoring

- Learn by doing, not books

- Taught by Tony, founder

- 9 people on the course

- Teaching assistant

- Daily “katas” and live coding

HTML & CSS
JavaScript React
NodeJS
REST APIs
Git
MongoDB
TDD
Project Management

- Learnt real world useful stuff

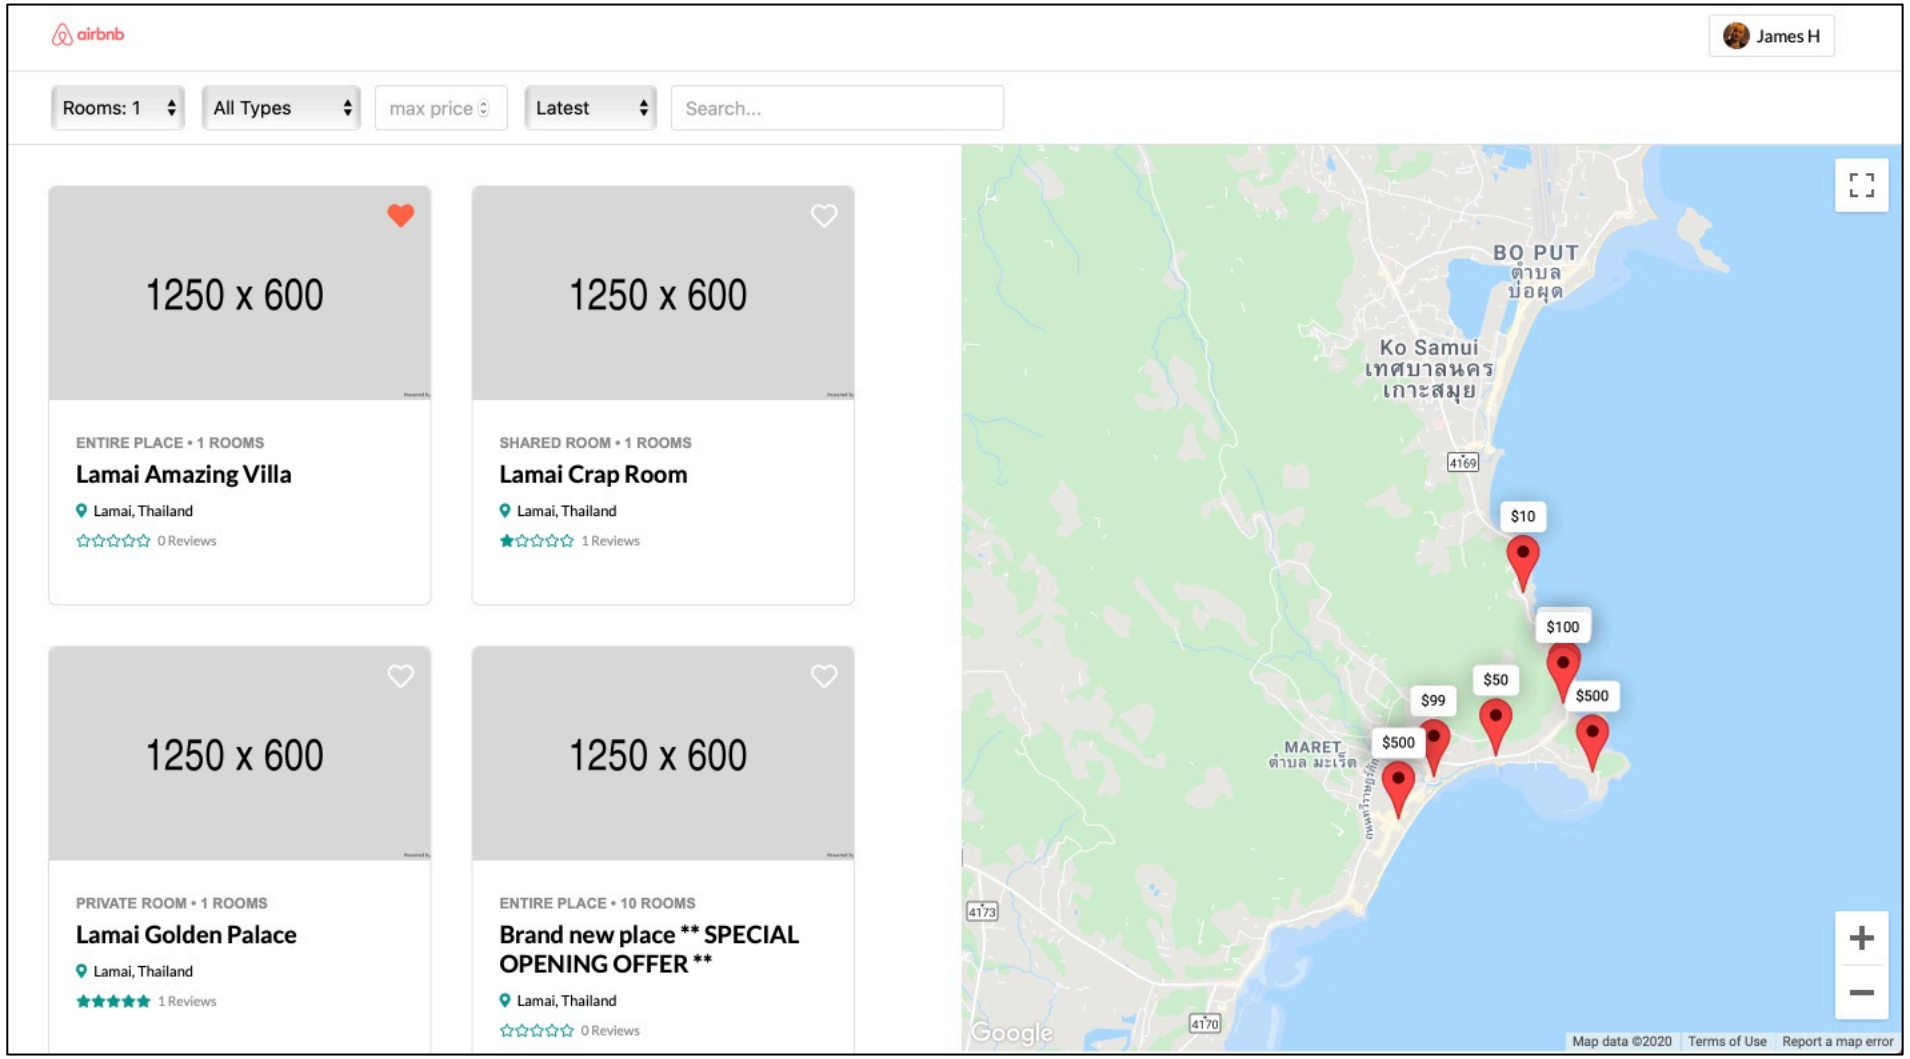
- Wasn’t overwhelming, a nice pace

- Time for experimenting, Q&A

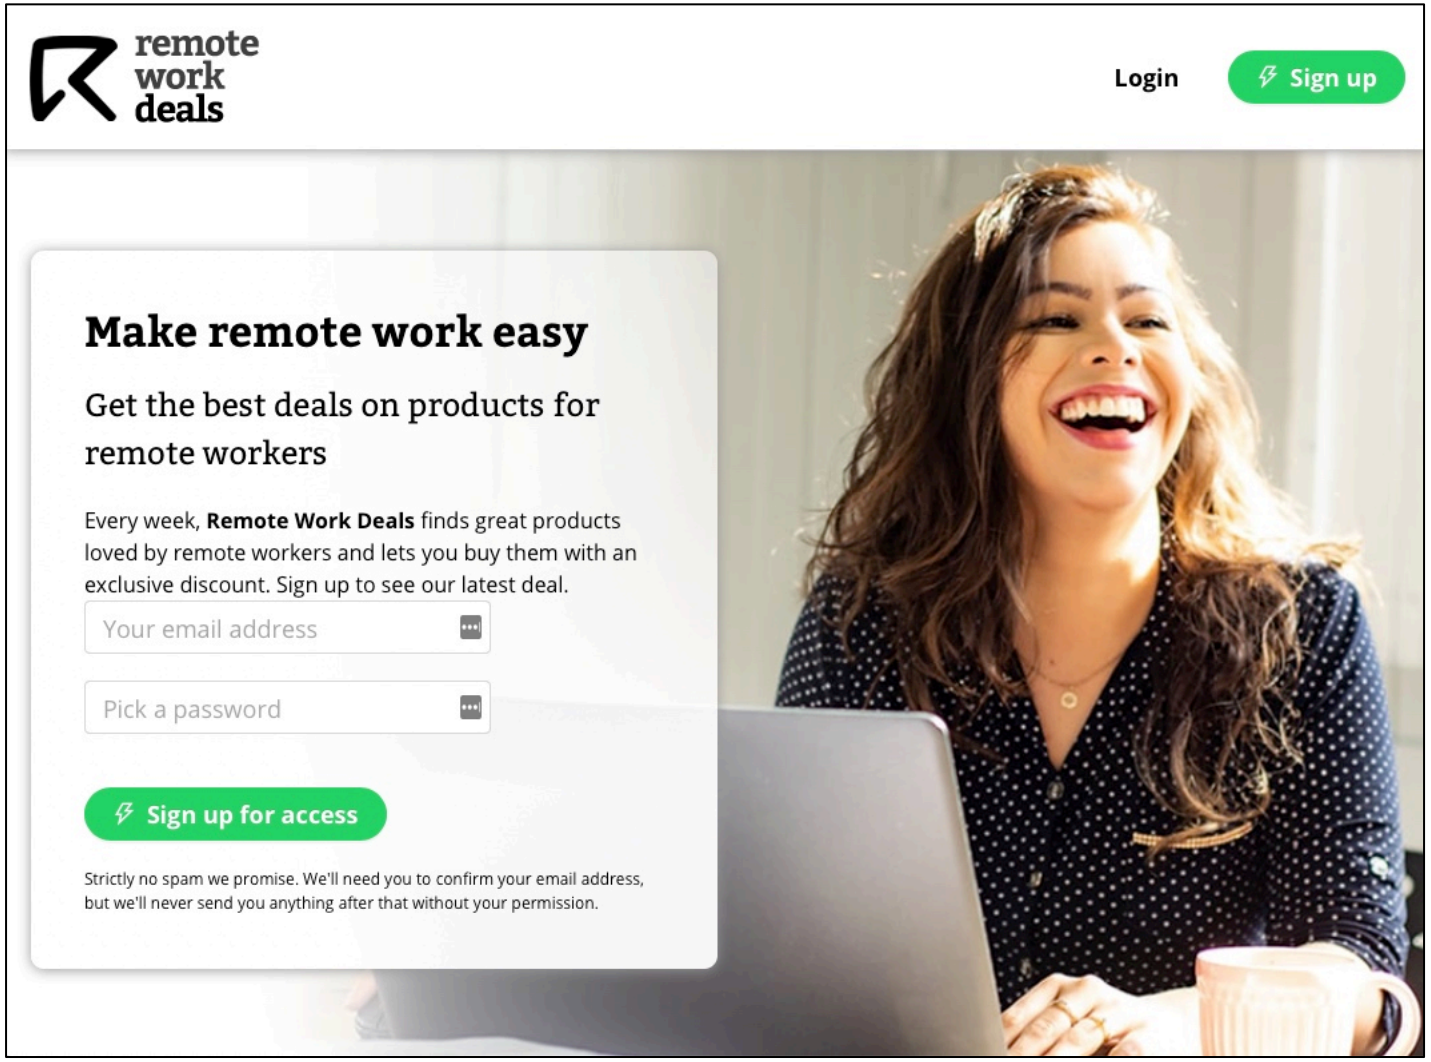
- Different abilities of student group

- A lot of self-study needed to excel

- Some students just coasted



COURSE PROJECT - AIRBNB CLONE (REACT / REST API / NODE / MONGO)



FINAL PROJECT – REMOTE STARTUP DEALS (REACT / REST API / NODE / MONGO / STRIPE / SENDGRID / S3)

COURSE COST:

$2,500 USD

My own breakdown:

Coworking $200
Coffee/drinks $200
Course outline $150
Tutoring (1hr x 44 @ $75) $3,000
Freebies $100?
TOTAL VALUE: $3,950

Was it worth it?

Would I recommend it?

- Gave me the time to learn
- Met some decent people
- The cost was super reasonable

TORTUGA
CODERS
TORTUGA
CODERS
TORTUGA
CODERS
Jack & Jones

Interested in the course?

https://tortugacoders.com

(P.S. Mention James from Batch 4 when applying to get free stuff)